Grapevine Public Library Newsletter

Vol. 22, No. 3

January 2013

The Grapevine Public Library staff wishes you a happy and prosperous 2013 and suggests these New Year's resolutions...

1. Bring your children to storytime.
2. Learn about your family tree by exploring the library's genealogy collection.
3. Use the library's online resources for Zinio online magazines, college information, test guides and practice tests, automotive manuals, business information, legal forms, and more.
4. Access an eBook or downloadable audiobook from home.
5. Renew your materials online or by phone at www.grapevine.lib.tx.us or 817-410-3083.
6. Access Live Online Homework Help to improve students' grades.
7. Download the Grapevine Public Library App for iPhone.
8. Ask a librarian for more information on any of these resources!

Did You Know...

With our new catalog and its enhanced capabilities, more information is available at the bottom of the screen when you click on a specific item. This may include a synopsis, reviews, Lexile level for juvenile materials, and book recommendations for further reading. You don't want to miss these new features, so when you click on an item in the catalog, be sure to take a look at the bottom of the record for useful bonus information!

We will be closed January 1st for New Year's Day.

Name Droppers

Grapevine Name Droppers is an informal group of genealogists who meet on the second Monday of each month. The next meeting will be Monday, January 14th at 10:30 am. Roger Cobb-Mills will speak on DNA & Genealogy. Please join us.

Textile Arts

The DFW Machine Knitters Guild meets on the second Saturday of each month to see, hear, and share information about machine knitting. This month's program will be held Saturday, January 12th at 10:30 a.m. in the Library Program Room.

The next meeting of Quilt Chat will be January 20th at 2:30 p.m. in the Library Program Room. Topics vary from month to month.

Entwined Minds Book Club

The book club meets every 2nd Monday at 1 pm at the Library. The book for January 14 is Defending Jacob by William Landay. On February 11 the book will be Crooked Letter, Crooked Letter by Tom Franklin. It will be time to select the next books to read at the January meeting, so be sure to bring your reading lists!

Jumpstart Healthy Eating

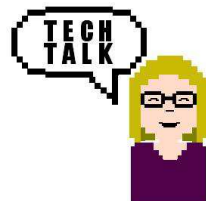

Start the New Year off right with nutritionist Rebecca Quiggle. Learn how to start healthy eating habits on Tuesday, January 8th at 7 pm.

eBook Seminar

Learn how to download FREE library books to your new Kindle, Nook, iPad, tablet, smartphone, iPod or computer. Feel free to bring your device in, and we can show you how to check out eBooks and eAudiobooks, download them to your device, and even return them early for those speed readers. Saturday, January 12 at 2 pm and Thursday, February 7 at 7 pm.

Tech Talk: Health Websites

This is an exciting time for Tech Talk and participants. We are going to start bringing in experts in various fields and companies to help you with technology. On Tuesday, January 15 at 10:15 am Andi Spencer will be presenting a program on Consumer Health websites. Learn about the best websites for information on medical diagnoses and prescriptions. Due to popular demand, we will begin offering Tech Talk at 7 pm that same night for those unavailable during the day.

Diabetes Education

Have you or one of your loved ones recently been diagnosed with diabetes? This is a great educational class for those recently diagnosed and their caregivers. Learn some hints to help you control your diet. Tuesday, January 22 at 10 am.

Habitat Protection for the Birds

Dr. Ray Chancellor will discuss birds of the local area and how important the protected habitat of the backyard and community open land is both to their global survival and local ecology. It will also be a wonderful time to learn how to make your backyard wildlife friendly. He will share his personal photographs that have been taken over the last 40 years in the local ecosystem and his own backyard. Presented by the Garden Club on Saturday, January 26 at 2 pm.

Cherokee Program

On Sunday, January 27 at 2 pm, the Cherokee Community of North Texas and the Cherokee Nation will present an informative program about Cherokee history along with a demonstration of a Cherokee gourd dance.

Make & Take

We will be making book-themed crafts on Thursday, January 24th at 7 pm.

The Incredible Bubble Show

Soap Bubble Artist Linda Berman has transformed children's natural fascination with bubbles into a unique interactive learning experience including a focus on reading, math, science, art, colors, shapes, listening, thinking "outside the bubble," and lots of good, clean fun. Join us for this special event for all ages on Thursday, January 10 at 7 pm.

Fingerprint Cards for Children

As a community outreach project, Southern & Western Insurance Company is visiting area libraries to offer free fingerprinting for children. They will be set up in the children's department before and after "The Incredible Bubble Show" on Thursday, January 10 beginning at 6:30 pm for anyone who is interested in this child safety service.

R.E.A.D. to a Furry Friend

The Reading Education Assistance Dogs (R.E.A.D.) program improves children's reading and communication skills by having them read to a dog. R.E.A.D. comes to Grapevine Public Library on the last Sunday of every month from 2:30 to 4:30 pm. The next R.E.A.D. session will be January 27th. Call 817-410-3405 to sign up for a time.

"Be Safe" Presentation by Texas Poison Control

For Family Storytime on Thursday, January 31st at 7 pm, a representative from Poison Control will present a program and video to teach children to be safe around poisonous or hazardous materials. This program is directed toward elementary school aged children.

Chess Club

Chess Club meets on Saturdays from 1 to 2 pm in the Children's Program Room. This is an open, come and go chess playtime. Instruction is available certain weeks.
